A TRIBUTE TO A DEAR FRIEND

Destiny brought me and Hosa together precisely 45 years ago in the college of aviation technology Zaria.

A friendship based on love for each other was immediately established.

Hosa graduated ahead of me under the same scholarship we had from Aero Contractors Limited.

I graduated and joined him in Lagos to firm up our brotherly relationship. We were the best of friends! Destiny moved us further in life as we focused on our professional carrier.

The experience was awesome! Hosa married first. To buttress our close relationship my elder brother Remi Kabaka ADENIHUN and his wife Trixie stood in as his parents for the marriage. This was the marriage between him and Evelyn.

I married three years later. Ivie, Osahon and Adesuwa were all born as our relationship waxed stronger!

He was a man with a Lion's heart! He appears tough to many but underneath the toughness is a very soft heart!

My childhood friend! My Captain! A friend that seemeth more than a brother! May his soul rest in perfect peace!.
