

Tribute to Captain Idahosa Wells Okunbo

I can't believe that I am writing this tribute about you in the past tense.

You accepted me as your own and treated me with kindness. I watched you and learned by observation.

Thank you for everything that you did for us.

You lived life to the fullest and on your own terms.

You were humble and real.

You understood the value of networking.

You were proud of your cultural heritage.

You were kind and generous.

You came, you saw and you conquered.

I pray that God gives you eternal rest as you sleep in the bosom of the Lord.

Adieu Daddy 'Captain'.

From

Dr. Ruth Okunbo
