TRIBUTE TO CAPTAIN HOSA WELLS OKUNBO

Captain General, you came; you saw; and, you conquered the WORLD through hardwork, love, care and support to humanity, but wicked DEATH snatched you away from us in this wicked world where those you lifted up were always looking out for your downfall. Yes, death is inevitable and a journey that everyone must embark on someday, sometime. Often times, we wish death is not part of life; we wish we would just stay alive on earth with our close and dear ones. Unfortunately, we cannot live forever in this earthly flesh. You were not only my friend but also a big brother. My dear Captain Hosa Wells Okunbo, you were humble, kind, loving, caring, generous, good at heart and soul, and a great philanthropist!

Captain General, you were a pillar of support to me, my family and many others. I really miss you and your honest brotherly advice. Your sudden death came as a rude shock. We did not expect it and we wished we had more time to continue to appreciate you. God in His infinite wisdom knows best. May the Lord God Almighty comfort and sustain your wife, children and family now and always.

Captain, be rest assured that ultimate judgment awaits those who betrayed you while you served humanity and God with your life.
May God Almighty keep you safe.

Rest in Peace until we meet on the resurrection day. Amen!

CAPTAIN GENERAL, GOOD NIGHT MY BIG BROTHER!

Hon. E. J Agbonayinma & Family.
